

Create a Employee Project Management System Where there are 2 Modules Admin and Employee

1. Employee Functionality:
 - a. Employee can register and on successful registration auto employee id generated
 - b. Employee can login and on successful login, session created.
 - c. Their will be 3 menu:- Project, Profile, Logout
 - d. In Project :- Completed Project, On-going Project, Upcoming Project should display
 - e. Completed project:- List of completed project and on clicking details of completed project display same with on going and upcoming.
 - f. Search functionality should apply for project search.
 - g. In profile tab, user can edit profile except email id and employee id.
 - h. On logout session invalidate and on browser back it should redirect to home page.
2. Admin Functionality:
 - a. Admin can login from same page where user login
 - b. On Successful login project list will display.
 - c. Admin can search project by project name or id.
 - d. Admin can add project
 - e. Admin can stop on going project Therefore, it will auto shift to completed.
 - f. Admin can assign upcoming project to employee.
 - g. Admin can view the detail information of all the projects on clicking the project name.
 - h. On logout session invalidate and on browser back it should redirect to home page.